ASSIGNMENT/ARRIVAL:

On Friday, September 21, 2018, I was assigned as a uniformed Deputy Sheriff at the Capitol Patrol Section where my duties included foot and vehicle patrols of state operated buildings, facilities and parks. My duty hours were from 0530 to 1400 hours and my immediate supervisor was Sergeant L. BORGES-MYERS. At around 1210 hours, Sheriff Dispatch received a call from Khara JABOLA-CAROLUS, who wanted to report a possible threat made against her. Deputy A. KAU and I responded and arrived on scene at around 1226 hours.

SCENE:

235 South Beretania St. Honolulu, HI 96813. Room 407.

TIME ELEMENT:

Between 1030 and 1247 hours on Friday, September 21, 2018.

REPORTING PARTY:

Reporting party was identified verbally and via Hawaii Drivers License as:
Name: Khara Jane JABOLA-CAROLUS
DOB: [REDACTED]
Address: [REDACTED] Hawaii [REDACTED]

JABOLA-CAROLUS STATEMENT:

JABOLA-CAROLUS provided a verbal statement in which she stated the following:

On the morning of September 21, 2018, there was a Hawaii Island Sex Trafficking Coalition meeting held on the Big Island. [REDACTED] told membership at the meeting that she had received a threat via text message against JABOLA-CAROLUS. [REDACTED] then notified JABOLA-CAROLUS of the threat. JABOLA-CAROLUS then called [REDACTED] of Hawaii Island Sex Trafficking Coalition. [REDACTED] substantiated the story and stated to JABOLA-CAROLUS that the threat seemed "very serious" and she was in "imminent physical danger". At around 1115 hours, JABOLA-CAROLUS contacted HPD and made a report with them. At around 1150 hours, JABOLA-CAROLUS contacted [REDACTED] of DHRD who instructed JABOLA-CAROLUS to contact the Sheriffs immediately for safety and an escort. JABOLA-CAROLUS stated that she sent her staffer home and locked her office. JABOLA-CAROLUS did not know who sent the text message or what was written in the text.

JABOLA-CAROLUS SECURITY ESCORT:

At around 1245 hours, Deputy A. KAU and I escorted JABOLA-CAROLUS from her office, down to Beretania street, where she stated that she was okay to walk from there.

[REDACTED] CONTACTED:

At around 1500 hours, I contacted [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] who stated to me that he was on a conference call with the Hawaii Island Sex Trafficking Coalition. During the end conference call, [REDACTED] sounded like she was getting distraught and from what he could hear, it sounded as if she had received a text message containing threats to JABOLA-CAROLUS. [REDACTED] stated that he then messaged JABOLA-CAROLUS on Facebook to see if she was okay and to notify her of the texts.

[REDACTED] CONTACTED:

At around 1513 hours, I contacted [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] who was in charge of the meeting, stated to me that towards the end of the meeting, [REDACTED] had her cellphone out and was reading something. She stated that [REDACTED] then began to get frantic and started saying that "we need to help her" and "we need to call somebody now!" [REDACTED] could not get any details from [REDACTED] but from what she could gather, it appeared that someone had sent [REDACTED] a threatening text message in regards to JABOLA-CAROLUS. [REDACTED] later spoke with JABOLA-CAROLUS and passed on what information she had. [REDACTED] provided me with a phone number for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] CONTACTED:

At around 1524 hours, I contacted [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] stated to me that she did not use the word "threat" in regards to the text message she received. She stated that her colleague from Arizona had sent her a text message about JABOLA-CAROLUS, however there was no physical threat involved. [REDACTED] stated that her colleague from Arizona informed her via text message that JABOLA-CAROLUS was receiving hate mail, derogatory phone calls, and that people were trying to get JABOLA-CAROLUS fired from her job because of a news article about sex trafficking. [REDACTED] stated that she told the members at the meeting that they need to help JABOLA-CAROLUS because she was being "attacked". I asked [REDACTED] if she was aware of any physical threats to JABOLA-CAROLUS in which she said no.
